

D. Eric Archer, Grievance Officer Report
July 23, 2021

Since my last report on June 24, 2021, I have engaged in the following activities:

- Communicating with Director of Academic Labor Relations (ALR) to discuss various and ongoing faculty concerns regarding workload and other contractual policies.
- Participated in ongoing, monthly meeting with the Provost's Office with other WMU-AAUP officers.
- Responded to multiple emails and conducted several virtual discussions with various faculty regarding workload concerns.
- Participated in one Step One grievance hearing and have initiated two other Step Two grievances.
- Provided guidance and advocacy related to contractual issues/concerns related to, but not limited to:
 - New Departmental and College Policies that have implications for the Western/WMU-AAUP Agreement
 - General Faculty Workload Concerns
 - Interdepartment Transfers
